CCL Label / Wine Group / Portland is a leader in high-quality pressure-sensitive wine label printing. We recognize that each design is unique and it's our mission to partner with our clients in order to produce the highest quality labels possible. Our state-of-the-art presses have foil, emboss and screen decorating capabilities, allowing us to print even the most complex labels on any paper. We are strong believers in the community and are annual sponsors of Salud! We are committed to both quality printing and service and look forward to long-term partnerships with our winery friends. Conveniently located in Northwest Portland, we would welcome the opportunity to talk to you soon about your label needs.
